Re: MUR 6023

Dear Mr Jordan

We are in the final stages of preparing a response to the two separate Complaints contained in MUR 6023, and I am writing to respectfully request an additional 7-day extension (i.e., until June 29) in order to prepare a fully substantive response to the allegations raised in the Complaint. We do not believe the complainant would be prejudiced by this short (and final) extension. This will enable us to ensure the most complete Response, which we believe will greatly assist the Commission in its rapid disposition of this Matter.

We also wish to reiterate our earlier request that the two issues raised in the Complaint be divided into two separate MURs. Based on our ongoing analysis, the Campaign continues to believe that the two issues raised in the complaint are totally unrelated matters and have no factual or legal connection to each other. As such, the bifurcation of the MUR would facilitate both our response and the consideration by the Commission.

Thank you once again for your consideration.

Sincerely,

Trevor Potter
